
Remarkable Ability to Read Fast

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Teachers say a Pittsburgh boy can read 10,000 words a minute, has been clocked at 30,000 on several occasions and once hit 40,000 words per minute.

The ability of Bill Carmack 17, of the city's Mt. Washington section, was discovered last spring while he was taking a speed reading course at South Hills High School.

In a copyright story today, the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette quoted school principal Roy T. Matern as saying: "He's just one of those people who can glance at a page and tell you what's on it."

Last week Bill demonstrated his reading ability for a reporter. The boy was handed a magazine story about Alexander the Great. Bill started reading. The reporter opened his notebook to record the time Bill started and the boy said: "I'm finished."

Fifteen seconds had elapsed. The article was 1,500 words long. The boy then correctly summarized Alexander's military strategy and gave two dates correctly.

The 10,000 words a minute is about 40 times faster than normal. At top speed, Bill could breeze through about 50 newspaper columns in one minute.

the Negro pupils were demonstrating in protest to the bombing at Birmingham.

The U.S. Justice Department sent in three top officials and a force of FBI agents with bomb experts. City officials joined with church leaders in a special telecast, urging citizens to be calm.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a Negro leader, flew into town to urge Negroes to be nonviolent—just as he did in May when the bombing of a Negro motel touched off rioting by Negroes.

National Guardsmen were placed on alert. Gov. George C. Wallace sent 300 state troopers into town at the request of Mayor Albert Boutwell.

The Sunday morning blast at the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church occurred during a youth day program at the church where numerous desegregation meetings have been held.

It killed the four young girls and injured 23 others. Within a few hours, two Negro boys were shot to death in other parts of the city, and three other persons were wounded.

"Today has been the most frightening in the history of Birmingham," said Sheriff Melvin Bailey as violence continued breaking out despite pleas for peace.

Not since integration leader Medgar Evers was shot to death at his home in Jackson, Miss., in June has the nation's Negro community reacted so strongly to racial violence.

Negro leaders called for strong federal action. The blast was the worst of numerous bombings and other violence since Negroes began campaigning in April for desegregation.

They achieved public school integration. Its beginning last week brought some student boycotts or sought to block the integration and protests. Gov. Wallace earlier sought to block the integration, but was stymied by federal intervention.

This tense city spent a long, fearful day and night after Sunday's blast. Several fires broke out, rocks were thrown by Negroes in various sections and gunfire was reported.

Sunday school classes at the church were just ending a lesson on "The love that forgives" when the explosion ripped out concrete, metal and glass.

The four girls apparently were in the lounge in the basement of the old brick church. One, Cynthia Wesley, 14, was hit by the full force of the blast and could be identified only by clothing and a ring.

The others were Carol Robertson and Addie Mae Collins, 14, and Denise McNair, 11.

Even as officers were roping off a two-block area around the church—the starting place for many of the desegregation demonstrations earlier this year—civil and church leaders were crying for peace and nonviolence.

But there was no peace. Two white youths fatally shot a 13-year-old Negro boy, policemen shot to death a 16-year-old Negro and two white men were wounded by Negroes, one in a robbery attempt.

Police were kept on the run for hours investigating reports of rock throwing, fires and other outbreaks.

The state troopers came in, the FBI launched its probe and U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy sent three top aides, Burke Marshall, Joseph Nolan and John Nolan.

King, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, telegraphed President Kennedy. "Unless some immediate steps are taken by the federal government to reduce a sense of confidence in the protection of life and property...we shall see LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth is expecting a baby early next year, Buckingham Palace announced tonight. It will be her fourth child.

The announcement came from the palace while the queen was on her annual holiday with her family at Balmoral Castle in Scotland.

Sparkman Calls

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana ordered overtime sessions in an effort to accommodate more than 20 senators who still want to make floor speeches on the treaty. Eleven want to speak today, 10 more on Tuesday.

Mansfield indicated he did not think the oratory would change many votes.

Much of Sparkman's prepared address centered on replying to a series of questions raised a week ago by Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine. She is listed in the doubtful vote column.

Sparkman said "there are no single, factual answers available to most of the questions posed. There are only speculative answers, but answers with high probabilities, based on interpretation of available facts."

"Final resolution of most of the senator's questions would come, I fear, only from data collected after a full-scale nuclear war between the United States and the Soviet Union," Sparkman added.

On two of the major points raised by Sen. Smith, Sparkman quoted testimony by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

"The absence from our arsenal of a bomb greater than the one we can build under the treaty will not impair the effectiveness of our strategic forces," Sparkman said.

"Even after a Soviet strike the total surviving U.S. strategic nuclear force will be large enough to destroy the enemy."

He added that supporters recognized "there are risks in this treaty."

Also speaking in favor of the treaty was Sen. Maurice Neuberger, D-Ore., who said that the in Birmingham and Alabama the worst racial holocaust the nation has ever seen."

The executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Roy Wilkins, wired the President from New York that unless the federal government offers more than "piecemeal aid against this type of bestiality," Negroes will "employ such methods as our desperation may dictate in defense of the lives of our people."

Bomb blasts aren't new to Birmingham Negroes, but bomb deaths are.

Twenty-two times in the past eight years, explosions have been directed at Negroes here. Sunday's was the first one that killed. In none of the blasts has there been a conviction.

Police estimated that 10 sticks of dynamite went into the bomb, apparently placed in a stairwell about four feet below ground level outside the building. Dynamite is not unfamiliar in Birmingham, a mining town.

Meteorites are composed of iron alloys, mainly nickel-iron and stones made of silicate materials.

On a map Norway appears almost as one great mountain, culminating in 8,997-foot Galdhøpiggen.

Sikes Loses in National Amateur Play

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Amateur golf frustrates its champion, Deane Beman, but he has no intention of turning professional to rid himself of the mood.

"I've got an insurance business that takes a lot of time and a growing family," Beman, 25, said today. "It doesn't leave much time for golf."

"I work and suffer more than the professionals do. They can concentrate on golf alone. It's frustrating because I know I could be a better golfer if I gave myself the chance to play more."

Is the frustration strong enough to turn him toward pro golf? "No, sir," said Beman, who won the U.S. Amateur title for the second time in four years Saturday with a 2 and 1 victory over NCAA champion Dick Sykes of Arkansas. "But it's still frustrating."

To get ready for the Amateur tournament here at the Wakonda Club's 6,896-yard, par 36-36-72 collection of hills, dales and trees Deane ducked away from his insurance business for an hour or two whenever he could for some practice at his club in Bethesda, Md.

Beman said he didn't panic when Sikes, 23, a two-time former Public Links champion who was to register today for his senior year at Arkansas, had him three down after 14 holes of the 36-hole title match.

Deane, with his wife trudging faithfully along with him as she did through all his eight matches, won the last four holes of the morning round, three with birdies. He went two up on the first hole of the afternoon round, fell back to even after the 26th, then won the 28th with a par and rapped in a clinching 18-foot birdie putt on the 32nd.

Loan Is Sought

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The University of Arkansas board of trustees has authorized the University Medical Center to seek a Hill-Burton federal loan for remodeling work. Storm Whaley, university vice president, said the overall project would cost $100,000. The Hill-Burton application would be for half that amount.

Ford Ready for Either Nat'l Team

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

Whitey Ford is ready any day the Dodgers and Cardinals get things settled. If the Dodgers win, he and Sandy Koufax will open the World Series. If the Cardinals prevail, Ford's Yankee Stadium opponent Oct. 2 probably will be Curt Simmons.

Ford proved Sunday that he is primed for his usual October exercise. The New York Yankees ace threw a two-hitter at the Minnesota Twins for his 23rd victory, 2-1.

Financially speaking, Ford and the Yanks undoubtedly would vote for a rich series with Los Angeles and its big ball park. However, the possibility of a head-to-head joust with the fearless St. Louis club and a dramatic final appearance for Stan Musial must be alluring.

No matter who wins the National League, the Yankees aren't going to let any rust develop after their early pennant clinching in the American League. The defeat dropped Minnesota into third place behind Chicago, whose game at Washington was rained out.

Baltimore edged Detroit 2-1, although the Orioles were victims of the first triple play in the league since 1960. Felix Mantilla's two-run homer off John Wyatt enabled Boston to down Kansas City 5-3. Cleveland beat Los Angeles and Bo Belinsky 6-3.

The Cardinals drew to within one game of the Dodgers in the National by beating the Milwaukee Braves twice 3-2 and 5-0 while Philadelphia was knocking off Los Angeles 6-1. San Francisco downed Pittsburgh 13-5. Cincinnati topped Chicago 3-1 and Houston swept a pair from New York 5-4 and 5-0.

Ford has won six in a row and has equalled Koufax's total for

Former Senator Hatch Dies

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Former senator and U.S. Judge Carl A. Hatch, the New Mexico Democrat best known for the Hatch Act which prevents millions of federal employees from participating in politics, will be buried Tuesday.

Hatch, 73, died at an Albuquerque hospital Sunday following a long illness. He resigned his federal judgeship last year because of the respiratory ailment.

He was appointed to the federal bench in 1949 by former President Harry S. Truman, a friend and former Senate colleague. Hatch served in the Senate for 12 years.

During his years in the Senate, he played major roles in early atomic energy policy, labor legislation, public lands policy and was an early supporter of an international peace organization idea which was to give birth to the United Nations.

Radar Screen Guards U.S. Approaches

By VERN HAUGLAND
AP Aviation Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force disclosed today that an airborne radar screen is keeping a missile defense watch along the eastern approaches to North America.

Lt. Gen. Herbert B. Thatcher, commander of the Air Defense Command, announced that four-engine patrol planes, operating out of Otis Air Force Base, Mass., maintain surveillance by means of a new electronic defense known as ALRI.

Thatcher also disclosed that inauguration of the airborne system was a significant factor in the Air Force decision earlier this year to discontinue operation of the Texas Tower radar stations off the New England Coast.

He said the new system demonstrated that the ocean-based Texas Towers could be shut down without loss of adequate air defense radar surveillance.

Thatcher said planes patrol hundreds of miles out at sea to provide an improved air defense shield over the horizon and far beyond the range of shore-based radar and line-of-sight radio communications, he said.

Thatcher said the new system attained operational status this week following extensive operational tests.

From their altitude vantage points, the flying radar stations sweep the horizon seaward in all directions. The system is designed to guard against surprise attack from any flight level, right down to the water.

Target information is automatically processed and transmitted to East Coast centers by way of shore-based communication relay points and goes directly into computers to become an active part of the air defense function.

The one-kilowatt ultra high frequency transmitters employed are "among the most powerful ever to be airborne," Thatcher said.

The new system was developed for the Air Force by Electronic Communications, Inc., St. Petersburg, Fla.

Thatcher made his information available in advance of an address to the annual meeting of the Air Force Association.

JFK Vague Over Plans in Viet Nam

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy, fed up with the developing chaos in South Viet Nam, has pulled a veil over American actions there. That the United States will act seems certain. He left the show clouded over.

But Kennedy's very vagueness at his news conference Thursday, or rather the way he chose to be vague, can be interpreted as ominous for the dictatorship of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

The United States has pumped billions of dollars in aid into Viet Nam—plus troops—to fight the war against Communists, fearing that if Viet Nam is lost all Southeast Asia may be lost.

But Diem and his Roman Catholic family, in a country more than 50 per cent Buddhist, have turned the war into hash and brought the country to internal crisis by their repressions against Buddhists and students.

Some American actions, or pressures, or warnings may have already started.

The State Department has denied that this country's new ambassador to Viet Nam, Henry Cabot Lodge, has told Diem to throw out his brother, Ngo Dinh Nhu, head of the secret police. Nhu has acquired a sinister stature.

But strangely in the midst of all the domestic turmoil two other extremely important members of Diem's family have already left the country.

One, Nhu's arrogant wife, a storm center in the trouble with the Buddhists, has gone to Belgrade to attend an interparliamentary conference and will later go to New York.

The other, Diem's brother, Archbishop Ngo Dinh Thuc, who is now in Paris, has been in New York after visiting Rome where his scheduled audience with Pope Paul VI was canceled.

The Pope has said he is profoundly disturbed by events in Viet Nam. Thuc said in New York the Vatican had ordered him to shut up on the situation in his country. In short, he was silenced.

Still left in Viet Nam with Diem are his brother, Nhu, and another brother, a powerful but seldom-mentioned figure, Ngo Dinh Can, who holds no official position but is boss of the central part of the country.

Both the Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations have handled Diem very gingerly because, so the reports in Washington go, he was strongly anti-Communist and it would be difficult, if not impossible, to find anyone to replace him.

It seems the Diem family traded on the American belief in their indispensability and ran both the war and the country with a high hand. The breaking point started with the conflict with the Buddhists last May, reaching a recent climax.

Thursday, several hours before Kennedy's news conference, 22 senators introduced a resolution to put Congress on record as favoring a halt to all aid to Diem unless he abandons his policies of "repression" and seeks popular support.

Then at his conference Kennedy sibilicv country will support what helps the war against the Communists, oppose what hinders it. He added: "I do not think it advisable to state all our views at this time. I think they will be made more clear as time goes on."

Thing Just Kept on With Buzzing

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A mysterious object confronted police and Army bomb experts Sunday in the parking lot at San Francisco's Palace of the Legion of Honor. The thing was buzzing.

The skirmishers found it wasn't radioactive but they couldn't seem to dismantle it. So they shot it. It stopped buzzing.

The police took it in for further analysis. Inspector Jack Long, an amateur radio bug, took a look at it.

"The thing," Inspector Long said, "is a television tube with a transistorized amplifier," he fiddled with it and it started buzzing again, despite its wounds.

Five Die in Ferris Wheel Accident

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—At least five Mexicans were killed and 30 were injured when a ferris wheel collapsed Sunday night at a fair in Tijuana, Baja California, police said.

A doctor at Miguel Aleman Hospital said a woman seven months pregnant died while doctors operated to save her baby.

Six persons were reported seriously hurt with injuries ranging from broken legs and arms to severe cuts and bruised limbs.

The ferris wheel was spinning approximately 30 persons high above the crowd when one of the seats fell out of its sockets.

The owner, his son and the operator of the wheel were in custody.

day in the parking lot at San Francisco's Palace of the Legion of Honor. The thing was buzzing.

The skirmishers found it wasn't radioactive but they couldn't seem to dismantle it. So they shot it. It stopped buzzing.

The police took it in for further analysis. Inspector Jack Long, an amateur radio bug, took a look at it.

"The thing," Inspector Long said, "is a television tube with a transistorized amplifier," he fiddled with it and it started buzzing again, despite its wounds.

DOROTHY DIX

WHO PREY UPON BOYS

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Much emphasis has been put upon heart-broken girl ruined by a handsome Romeo. How about the boy?

The Bible warns the curious young man against the adulteress. Yet many boys have their lives blighted by conniving, deceitful married women and nobody ever hears that sad story. I was just such a boy in love with a sweet, wholesome girl my own age when I became involved with a married woman and her drunken brothers. They kidded and jeered until I drank with the crowd and found myself the victim of adultery. The woman's husband was in the Army.

I lost all sense of decency and shame, despised myself and her, yet lusted after her flesh.

Many men brag of their affairs with these jezebels. Some day they will realize, as did I, that such an affair can only lead to hate, shame, even bloodshed. If the truth were known, the majority of murders, suicides, alcoholism and divorce are caused by the flattering deceitful - tongued acts of an adulteress.

I shall forever be thankful to God for opening my eyes to what the faithful love of a young sweet-heart—now my wife—meant. I almost lost this heaven because of ignorance; so many others are warned against tasting bitter fruit proffered by an adulteress. —Happy Husband of a Faithful Wife

Dear Happy Husband: It takes two to commit adultery. When you write, "I became involved . . . and found myself the victim of adultery," I wonder why you were such easy prey and fear you were not so much the victim of adultery as you were, and still are, the victim of fuzzy thinking. We alone are responsible for our actions. A real test of maturity is to accept this responsibility and stop blaming others for our own failures and mistakes.

St. Paul wrote, "The wages of sin is death," and while this is not necessarily always true in real life, it held true in the Biblical case of your friend Jezebel. In spite of being a king's daughter, she got her comeuppance in a rather violent manner. Chances are that your real life Jezebel cannot continue for very long without some sort of punishment. At any rate you have proved that virtue triumphs and for that you should indeed thank God.

Dear Helen: I've taken your advice before and come out with the best results. Now I need help again.

I went steady with the same boy for a year and two months then broke off because of another girl. She was in my class at

Raiders Not the Same Pro Team

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only four players are left from the original Oakland Raiders. And it shows.

The new-look American Football League club has played two games, won two games, doubled last year's victory output and entered its name in the Western Division championship sweepstakes.

The man responsible is new Coach Al Davis, who at 33 is the youngest man on his own staff. Quarterback Cotton Davidson, only four years younger than Davis, engineered the attack Sunday, passing for two touchdowns and scoring one as the Raiders overwhelmed Buffalo 35-17 before 17,569 at Oakland.

The Oakland-Buffalo game wound up a weekend program that began Saturday with San Diego edging Boston 17-13 before 26,037 at San Diego and Houston beat Denver before 22,855 at Houston.

Kansas City and New York were not scheduled.

In the National Football League's opening program, the Chicago Bears upset Green Bay 10-3, New York defeated Baltimore 37-28, Cleveland walloped Washington 37-14, Minnesota beat San Francisco 24-20, St. Louis crushed Dallas 34-7, Detroit whipped Los Angeles 23-2 and Pittsburgh and Philadelphia tied 21-21.

Of the original Raiders who took the field when the AFL started in 1960, only quarterback Tom Flores, center Jim Ott, guard Wayne Hawkins and linebacker Bob Dougherty remain.

They were on hand as the Raiders endured a 19-game losing streak that stretched from 1961 to the last game of 1962. Now new faces have been brought in.

The NIGHT, The WOMAN

By Stephen Ransome

Copyright © 1962, 1963 by Stephen Ransome

Blake Carden's secretary, Jean Bradley, was the girl he was going to marry.

The Westcott Florida Bank building stood tall in the center of downtown Fernand Beach, three stories of flamingo - pink stucco, bright in the midsummer sunlight. An electric sign on the marquee announced the time and the temperature, alternating once every 60 seconds. Temp 94 ... 2:57 ... Temp 94 ... 2:58 ... Temp 94 ...

Blake Carden came around the corner from Gulf Boulevard just as 2:59 flashed on. He came with a quick, ranga stride until a new thought stopped him on the sidewalk facing the entrance.

He still had a fraction of a minute left and the decision was still his: he could walk right in or he could turn away. If he delayed he could say, later, "Got there a little too late - couldn't get in." It would be a lie, but a small one which would gain him time enough to try to dig out the real reason behind the demand for more money.

While hesitating, turning over in his mind the pros and cons, he raised his gaze to the front windows on the second floor of the building. With an ever-nervous lift of pride he saw his name neatly lettered on the panes above the designation Attorney-at-Law. It had been up there for three years and eight months now, following a fledgling's beginning in a much smaller office.

What he had set out to do a few minutes ago was entirely legitimate. There couldn't be anything wrong in the simple act of withdrawing money from his own account. Still, it would arouse curiosity; it might even start some suspicious gossip going around.

The unexpected phone call from his older brother Todd had caught him at a moment when he was preoccupied with work. He had had to cut Todd short in order to rush down here from his desk, leaving an important client waiting. Todd's insistence still puzzled him. "Can't wait until tomorrow; got to have it today. Not a check, kid, folding money."

Packers Upset by the Bears of Chicago

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

"They beat us," Jim Ringo said it, the first time such a phrase had been uttered in a Green Bay Packer home dressing room in three years.

"We had nothing going," said Coach Vince Lombardi. "We couldn't even get our hands on the ball. We were lucky to get away 10-3."

That was the score by which the Chicago Bears upended the mighty Packers in the surprise of the day as the National Football League got off to its 44th season.

Otherwise, it was business as usual for such standouts as Jim Brown and Y. A. Tittle. Brown ran for 162 yards and scored three times in the Browns' 37-14 romp over Washington before 57,618 in Cleveland and bald, ol' Y. A. passed for three touchdowns and ran for another in New York's 37-28 comeback over the Colts before 60,029 in Baltimore.

Minnesota came from behind and edged the 49ers 24-20 in San Francisco and Pittsburgh had to settle for a 21-21 tie in Philadelphia when Lou Michaels blew a potential tie-breaking conversion, in other Sunday games.

Detroit blasted the Rams 23-2 at Los Angeles and St. Louis upset Dallas 34-7 on the Cowboys' home field in Saturday night encounters.

In the American Football League, Houston edged Denver 20-14 and San Diego got by Boston 17-13 Saturday, and Oakland beat Buffalo 35-17 Sunday. Kansas City and New York were idle.

The big bomb was dropped in Green Bay. The powerful Packers, gunning for a third straight league title and beaten only once last season, never got untracked against the Bears' crushing defense.

The Bears picked off four Bart Starr passes, limited the Packer quarterback to 11 completions in 22 attempts for 73 yards and held the vaunted Packer ground game to 77 yards, 53 in 12 attempts by Jim Taylor.

The Bears' Bob Jencks kicked a 32-yard field goal and the Packers' Jerry Kramer matched it from 41 yards out, both in the first quarter. The Bears broke the tie in the third period with Billy Wade directing a 68-yard march and passing them into position on the one. Joe Marconi rammed over from there.

Brown, a five-time rushing leader, who relinquished the crown to Taylor last year, had a field day against the Redskins. He averaged 10.8 yards on 15 carries, caught three passes for 100 yards, scored on runs of 80 and 10 yards and took an 83-yard pass for another touchdown.

Frank Ryan riddled the Redskins secondary, completing 21 of 31 passes for 334 yards and two touchdowns. Washington equalled a league record with George Izo combining with Bobby Mitchell on a 99-yard scoring pass.

The Eastern Division champion Giants fumbled and bumbled their way to a 21-3 deficit early in the first period before the 36-year-old Tittle took charge. He passed for three touchdowns to pull the Giants to within four points, 28-24, at halftime, then loped nine yards for a third-period touchdown that put the Giants ahead to stay.

Deans Truck Stop Team Ends Season

Deans Truckers, a local independent baseball team, sponsored by Dean Murphy of Hope, ended an outstanding season last week by defeating Perry's Truck Stop 3 to 2 and winning the Southwest Arkansas Independent League Tournament.

Teams in the league are Camden, El Dorado, Deans Truckers, Spring Hill, Perry's Truck Stop, and the Hope Independents.

The Truckers had a 43 won, 3 lost record for the season and the men all joined in thanking their sponsor for making it possible for them to participate in all the games.

The team consists of Danny Hatfield, Brint Odum, Ray Duke, Delton Hatfield, Wayne Camp, Richard McMurtrey, James Hatfield, Aubrey Hatfield, Larry Walker, Troy Buck, Joe Parris, and Buddy Jordan.

League leaders include: Batting Delton Hatfield, .618, Troy Buck, .616 and Wayne Camp, .594. Pitching: Troy Buck, 32-1; 3 no hits and 5 shutouts. Home Runs: Delton Hatfield 3, Wayne Camp 2, Brint Odum and Troy Buck 1 each.

Tech Boots Prove Fatal to Florida

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

When you've got a wet field, a slippery football and Billy Lottidge, the solution is simple: You give him the ball and tell him to kick it.

He did, often and well, and made the difference as Georgia Tech booted Florida 9-0 Saturday and got the major college football season off to a soggy start.

The do-everything quarterback punted seven times, averaging 42 yards and keeping Florida backed to the wall. And his 35-yard field goal late in the first half broke a scoreless tie and was all the margin Tech's stubborn defense needed.

Florida was held to a minus five yards rushing, 41 passing and was penalized 75 yards in the only major college game of the week.

The season gets off to a full start this week with Southern California opening defense of its national championship at Colorado.

The mighty Trojans, who swept through a tough, 10-game schedule unbeaten last season, then fought off Wisconsin 42-37 in the Rose Bowl, are favorites to repeat.

Southern Cal polled 34 first place votes from an Associated Press panel of 55 sportswriters and sportscasters as the team most likely to come out on top.

On the basis of 10 points for a first place vote, nine for second, eight for third and so on, the Trojans had 434 votes. The rest of the top ten, in order, were: Mississippi, Alabama, Oklahoma, Texas Northwestern Wisconsin

Arkansas, Navy, Ohio State and Washington the latter two tied for 10th.

In addition to Georgia Tech's victory, some of last Saturday's major games included Buffalo's 34-0 romp over Gettysburg, New Mexico State's 21-0 blanking of Eastern New Mexico, Richmond's 10-7 edge over East Carolina, Furman's 17-0 victory over Davidson, Xavier's 9-7 loss to the Quantico Marines, and a 31-8 rout of Georgetown by Emory and Henry.

Cards-Dodgers Series Could Mean Pennant

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

"We've been fortunate in the past. When we play a bad game we turn around and beat someone pretty good," said Los Angeles Manager Walter Alston.

"I can't think optimistically or pessimistically about the pennant race. When you meet head on, anything can happen regardless of how good you're going," said St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane.

They said it Sunday after the stage was set for the beginning of a three-game series tonight at St. Louis between the first-place Dodgers and second-place Cardinals that likely will determine the National League pennant winner.

Alston said it following a 6-1 loss to Philadelphia in which three passed balls, a couple of mental lapses and the five-hit pitching of the Phillies' Dallas Green left the Dodgers with a mere one-game lead over the surging Cardinals.

Keane said it after Lew Burdette's six-hit pitching and Ray Sadecki's five-hitter gave St. Louis a 3-2 and 5-0 doubleheader sweep of Milwaukee, their 10th straight victory and their 19th in 20 games in a bid to overhaul Los Angeles.

The Dodgers, who led by seven games on Aug. 30, have 12 games remaining. The Cardinals, who have lost only one game since Aug. 30, have 10 left. They're all even in victories, with St. Louis two games back in the lost column.

The pitching rotation looks like this for the three-game series: Los Angeles—Johnny Podres, 13-10; Sandy Koufax, 23-5, and probably Pete Richert, 5-1.

St. Louis—Ernie Broglio, 16-8; Curt Simmons, 15-7, and Bob Gibson, 18-8.

While the Dodgers and Cardinals were in the spotlight Sunday, Cincinnati's John Tsitouris three-hit the Chicago Cubs 3-1, Willie Mays hit his 35th homer as San Francisco walloped Pittsburgh 13-5 and Houston took a pair from the New York Mets 5-4 and 5-0.

The American League champion New York Yankees edged Minnesota 2-1 Boston whipped Kansas City 2-1, Baltimore downed Detroit 5-3 and Cleveland defeated the Los Angeles Angels 6-3. The Chicago White Sox and Washington were rained out.

Green, a rarely used right-hander, brought his record to 6-4 against the Dodgers, allowing the only run on a homer by Tommy Davis in the fourth inning. The Phillies already had put it out of reach when they got to Don Drysdale, 17-17, for two runs in the first inning on a single by Tony Taylor, his steal of second.

Johnny Callison's single, a bunt single by Wes Covington and Roseboro's first passed ball.

Two more passed balls by Roseboro, a late throw by Ron Fairly on a sacrifice and Roy Sievers' home run led to the rest of the runs.

The Cardinals came off a nine-game winning streak and now have a 10-game string. In the last eight games, the pitching staff has come up with five shutouts.

Burdette, 9-11, had one until the seventh when Hank Aaron hit his 42nd homer, with one on. The Cardinals already had their three runs on a double by Ken Boyer and Bill White's homer in the second and Boyer's homer in the fourth.

Sadecki, 10-8, had an easier job, backed by a 14-hit attack that included three hits each by Charley James and Tim McCarver. Singles by Curt Flood, James, McCarver and Julian Javier gave the Cardinals two runs in the second—more than they needed.

"We're ready as we ever will be," said Keane.

Coach Seems Worried Over Okla. State

By BILL SIMMONS

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The University of Arkansas football team will hold regular practices today and Tuesday and spend Wednesday, Thursday and Friday reviewing before the Oklahoma State University football game in Little Rock next Saturday night.

Coach Frank Broyles said the trouble is, they're not sure about what they need to know.

"We don't know anything about Oklahoma State," Broyles said, "because they've got a new staff over there. A coach always worries before a game but this time I'm really worried."

Broyles said the team's physical condition and morale, plus a flood of injuries, had doubled his usual worries.

The Razorbacks won three Southwest Conference football titles and finished second in 1962 in the past four campaigns. Prior to each of those seasons, Broyles admits, he has been publicly pessimistic but inwardly optimistic.

"No coach goes into a game thinking he can't win it, and no team starts a season thinking it doesn't have a chance for the championship."

What about this year? "It has been a very disappointing September to this point," he said. "This team hasn't shown me what the other team had shown by this time last year."

Injuries, he said, are part of the problem.

"We miss the leadership and enthusiasm of some of our older boys," Broyles said. "Injuries have affected the team more this year and hurt the morale of coaches and the players."

"How well the injured boys will play is a question mark," he said. "It's hard to tell how they'll do. Some of the injuries will be in doubt all year. Anytime you have a knee injury, or a shoulder injury, they're questionable all year."

Tommy Brasher, a guard and linebacker, is one of the Razorbacks hampered by knee problems.

"He hasn't practiced at all," Broyles said. "I don't know whether to put him in this week and see how his knee holds up, or whether to give it more rest."

Broyles announced last week that guard Mike Hales and tackle Buddy Tackett would miss the OSU game because of knee injuries. Tackett already has been red-shirted, but Hales has not. Broyles said he hopes Tackett improves quickly so he can play this year.

Will he redshirt Hales? "Not if he can play," Broyles said.

Suppose Hales' knee doesn't get right until, say, the first five games are over. Will he redshirt him then?

"His knee will decide," Broyles said. "I can't project a decision that far ahead. If he can play, he will. If he can't, then he won't."

Broyles has picked junior Billy Grav as his No. 1 quarterback, but no decision has been made yet on who the second-line field general will be. The candidates are Fred Marshall, Gordon Guest, both juniors, and sophomore Jon Brittenum.

Broyles said no decision has been made yet on whether to red-shirt Brittenum.

A couple of other sophomores are in line for varsity jobs. They are Jack Brasuell, a wingback, and Jim Lindsey, a tailback. Neither will be red-shirted this year, Broyles said.

Brasuell will back up George

Bobcats Rate in the Top 20 in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Little Rock Hall, drawing five votes for first place, edged onto the top rung in the first Associated Press Arkansas High school football poll of the 1963 season.

But the Warriors were only one point in front of Pine Bluff, the pre-season consensus choice as the No. 1 team.

The Zebras were relegated to second place apparently because of their 7-7 tie at Texarkana last Friday night.

Little Rock Hall opened its season with a 22-0 romp over Little Rock Catholic. The Warriors polled 79 points, to 78 for Pine Bluff, which got two first place votes.

Little Rock Central got one first place vote and El Dorado got one. Central was ranked third this week, with El Dorado in fourth place, just three points behind the Tigers.

Fort Smith nailed down fifth place, with North Little Rock sixth and Texarkana seventh. Blytheville got eighth place, giving the first eight places in the poll to Big Ten Conference teams.

DeQueen which upended Hot Springs last Friday night, tied for ninth place with Benton, which almost beat Little Rock Central, and with West Memphis, which lost 3-0 in its opener but beat Stuttgart last week in its second game.

Results of the poll, with first place votes in parentheses, and total points at right:

1. Little Rock Hall (5)	79
2. Pine Bluff (2)	78
3. Little Rock Central (1)	63
4. El Dorado (1)	60
5. Fort Smith	51
6. North Little Rock	47
7. Texarkana	40
8. Blytheville	28
9. (tie) De Queen	12
West Memphis	12
Benton	12

Other teams receiving votes, in order: Jonesboro, Little Rock Catholic, Hope, Russellville, Clarksville and Hot Springs.

Local Baseball

Major League Stars

PITCHING—Dallas Green, Phillies, checked Los Angeles 6-1 on five hits as Dodgers' National League lead was trimmed to one game over second-place St. Louis.

BATTING—Ken Boyer and Charley James, Cardinals, led attack in 2-2 and 5-0 victories over Milwaukee that extended St. Louis' winning streak to 10 games. Boyer hit decisive homer in first game, James collected three hits and drove in two runs in night-cap.

Walker at wingback. Walker also is suffering from a knee injury. Lindsey, Broyles said, will be the offensive tailback, with Tommy Moore carrying the defensive load.

Thus far this fall, Broyles said, the offense, in practice, has "looked pretty good."

"It's not as consistent in blocking as we'd hoped," Broyles said. "And, it's not as effective as our offense was this time last year."

"Defense," Broyles said, "has been very disappointing. It hasn't been successful at all this fall."

Has he found any problem that could have brought on the inefficiency in defense, the drop in morale?

"No, none at all," he said. "That's what we hope to solve this week. We've got to get this team going."

St. Louis Fans Excited Over Cards

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Pennant feverish St. Louisians, excited by the Cardinals' spectacular September surge, were singing "The Yanks Are Coming" today. They didn't mean the Dodgers, who arrived to engage the red-hot Redbirds in a vital three-game series opening tonight that could decide the National League pennant.

The reference, of course, was to the World Series with the American League champions, so sure were these mad Missourians that their beloved Redbirds were going to overtake Los Angeles.

Not since 1942 when the Cards roared from behind to overtake the Dodgers has this city seen anything like this. The swirl of excitement caused by this unbelievable stretch run that has produced 19 victories in 20 games and trimmed the Dodgers' first place lead from seven games to one, has even engulfed the normally phlegmatic Stan Musial.

"What do you think? What do you think?" Musial kept asking visiting reporters who had come from all parts of the country to ask exactly that question of Stan The Man.

"I've never been on a club that has won 19 of 20 before," said the 42-year-old super star whose Cardinal years date back to 1941.

The Dodgers were anything but red-hot compared to the sizzling Cardinals, who extended their latest winning streak to 10 games Sunday with a 3-2 and 5-0 sweep of the Milwaukee Braves, behind the excellent pitching of veteran Lew Burdette and young Ray Sadecki.

Walt Alston's faltering first placers dropped a 6-1 decision to Philadelphia giving them only a split in the four-game series with the Phils. Although they've won 12 of their last 18, they have given up six games to the Cards during that stretch, enough to cause the Dodgers to recall last year, when they allowed a four-game lead to dissipate in the final week of the campaign.

Keane's pitching selections remained according to plan. Right-hander Ernie Broglio (16-8) and 2-2 against the Dodgers, will pitch tonight. He will be opposed by southpaw Johnny Podres, (13-10) and 6-1 against the Cards.

Brothers Break Own Course Record

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Brothers Richard and David McCauley broke their own Jaycee Golf Course record Sunday with a nine-under-par to win the city's annual four ball tournament.

Richard, 22, a member of the University of Arkansas golf team, carded four birdies and one two-under-par on the back nine and the team was seven under par on that segment. They had a three under par 34 on the front nine. The old record was 65. Runnersup Howdy Wilkins and Tommy Stambaugh tied that score.

ALC Meets in Time for Game

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislative Council will meet at 10:30 a.m. Saturday to consider three proposals for these studies:

Whether the Arkansas Council on Children and Youth should be given sufficient money to permit it to fulfill its statutory obligations or whether to repeal the law establishing it.

To determine the feasibility of production of sugar beets in Arkansas.

To determine the feasibility of a compact between neighboring cities, such as Texarkana, Ark. and Texarkana, Tex., which provide the same services.

The judiciary committee of the council will meet the same day.

The council normally meets on Fridays but set the Saturday session to coincide with the date of the University of Arkansas-Oklahoma football game.
